

Disclosure of Support Form Instructions

All presenters with a speaking role in an oral presentation (not poster or media presenters) are required to complete the Disclosure of Commercial Support form to comply with policies established by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME). ISTSS has joint-sponsored with Boston University School of Medicine to provide continuing medical education (CME) for meeting attendees.

- ✓ Print legibly. ISTSS and Boston University staff must be able to read and retype this information.
- ✓ Each presenter who is going to speak to the audience (not poster or media presenters) must complete this form. This includes discussants and anyone speaking from the podium.
- ✓ Each presenter must use a separate form.
- ✓ Presenters may list all of their presentations on one form.
- ✓ Do not submit the form more than once. You will be notified if your form was not received.
- ✓ Save a copy for your files should you be required to resubmit.

Question Directions

- Course Title: Use the full presentation title (s) used on the submitted proposal. Do not abbreviate.
- Date: Day and Time of presentation, if known.
- Presenter/Faculty Name: This is YOU, not the session chair.
- I or II: Please complete one or the other as appropriate.
- III (Signature): Required.
- IV (Initial): Please initial the appropriate statement.

Boston University School of Medicine requires that this form is filled out by every presenter. You can find these instructions and a PDF version of the form at www.istss.org, Annual Meeting, 2004, Presenters Information.
